Dear Gina,

I just thought I'd write you a quick note to let you know how much fun we had working with Barry Smith. He was great! Barry was easy to work with, funny, and 'Every Job I've Ever Had' was very stimulating!

Here at the School of Mines it is always difficult to find entertainers that can really "speak" to our students. Barry did it. Not only was he able to relate to the students, but his first person account of "finding his bliss" really spoke to the students. Barry's sense of humor helps too!

He's got a fantastic dry sense of humor that really works! He's had some of the worst jobs imaginable, that some of us have had, and his ability to laugh about them allowed him to truly relate to the students. They were amazed, cringed, and laughed as Barry recounted his "work" history.

Thanks for suggesting Barry Smith and 'Every Job I've Ever Had!' Our students really loved it. Now we're trying to figure out how to bring him back for one of his other programs!

Respectfully,

Mike Keegan
