Dear Ms. Hart:

I am writing to thank you for the powerful and very impressive presentation that you gave at Morris County's 6th Annual Parent Youth Summit on December 2, 2008. The audience gained so much from your presentation. Your honest and open depiction of the key players in the life of a young anorexic woman has enabled the possibility of open communication between young people and their parents and friends surrounding the issues related to body image, eating disorders, self harming behavior, and the possibility of making healthy choices.

We are thrilled that we were able to bring you to Morris County to share Add Verb's The Thin Line. It was a pleasure working with you, and we look forward to working with you in the future, as we continue to strive to empower our youth to make healthy choices.

Sincerely,

Kellye Smith

Youth Behavioral Health Coordinator
