

REMOTE PROGRAMMING AVAILABLE

LINGUISTIC REFRAMING TRAINING

"Kimberly has a great ability to make knowledge accessible, relatable, and personal. Providing tools for immediate and long term actions."

- Training Participant, May 15, 2020

HALF-DAY TO 3-DAY TRAINING

Linguistic reframing is a powerful tool to peacefully transform conflict and generate solutions.

Kimberly Dark is a Master Facilitator and Storyteller who wants you to reclaim your power as a social creator to make the world a better place.

In her interactive and engaging trainings, Kimberly offers tools for all of us to live our best lives, and build the culture in which we want to live.

Visit kimberlyark.com for booking.

"Wonderful topic and excellent presenter. I have so much to learn!"
- Training Participant
March 8, 2019

Why linguistic reframing?

To help people find their own solutions.
(And maybe find your own, too.)

THIS TRAINING WILL HELP STUDENT LEADERS

- Understand the causes of conflict
- Avoid conflict in the first place
- Identify the interests and emotions behind someone's words
- Practice using neutral language
- Use reframing in real-life situations

This training is also available for faculty and staff.

To participate in this training online, or to receive more information, contact info@kimberlydark.com.